

Name Art

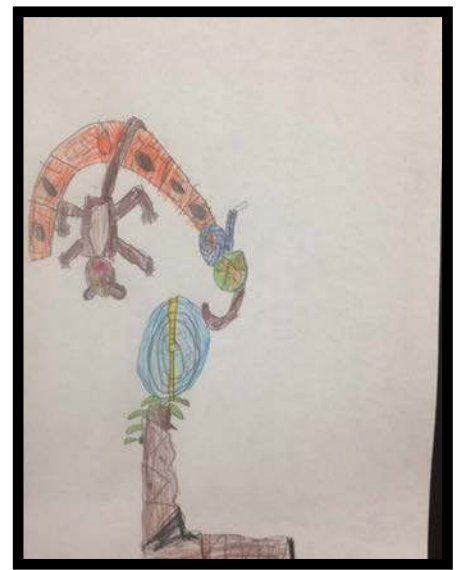

The third and fourth grade students began the year with a whimsical name art project. The idea was to draw, in ascending order, one's name in stylized lettering and to then draw a figure or figures within the letters. It also gave the students the opportunity to review the five elements of shape (straight, curved, and angled lines; dots; and circles) in the drawing method outlined by Mona Brookes in Drawing with Children.

Luke Shinabery, 4th Grade

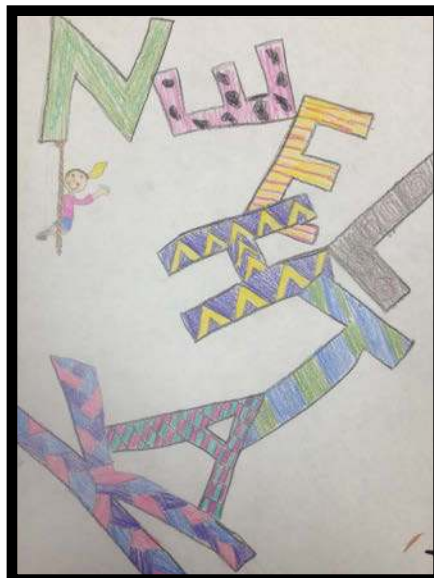

Jane Singleton, 4th Grade

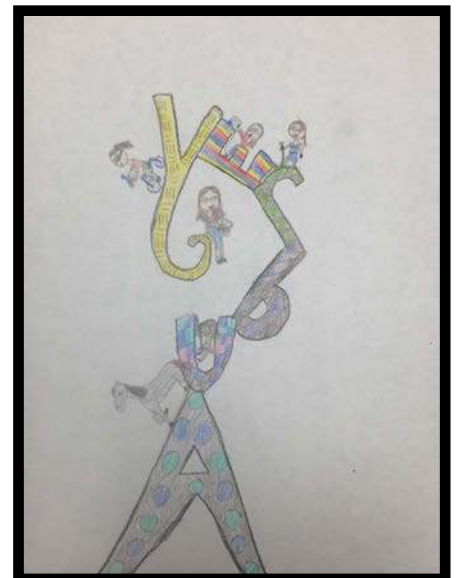

Logan Godbey, 3rd Grade

Tess Magar, 4th Grade

Kathleen Moser, 4th Grade

Aubrey Colburn, 4th Grade